

Adams State University
Media Professionals Career Connection
Thursday, April 16th
Art Building, 208 Edgemont Blvd, Alamosa CO

Presentation and Q&A

3:00 PM – 5:00PM

3:00

Donald Zuckerman, Colorado Film Commissioner

Introduction and brief overview of film office

3:15

Mary Hoffman, Executive Director of Adams State University Community Partnerships

Introduction and brief overview of Adams State Community Partnerships

3:30

Duke Hartman, Executive Producer and Principal of High Noon Entertainment

Working in news and reality television production

3:45

Alexandre O. Philippe, Director/Writer and Creative Director of Exhibit A Pictures

Producing independent documentaries

4:00

Sheila Ivy Traister, Actress/Coach and SAG-AFTRA Colorado Local President and National Board member

An actor's journey, working with agencies, and professionalism within the industry

4:15

Marc Snider, Producer and Coordinator of the Four Corners Film Office

Filmmaking and video in smaller markets; working with out of town producers

4:30

Travis Wilson, TV & Radio Development Producer of Rocky Mountain Public Broadcasting

Public broadcasting, show ideas, and the RMPBS internship program